Bush,
Obama

Same old drama!

Really?

In 2007, then-Senator Obama said:
"If American workers are being denied their right to organize and collectively bargain when I'm in the White House, I will put on a comfortable pair of shoes myself, I will walk on that picket line with you as President of the United States of America. Because workers deserve to know that somebody is standing in their corner."

(In 2011, President Obama did not find his shoes to join the massive protests in Wisconsin)
